TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit the corset counter at Vaughan's. Alexander Smith of the Salvation Army left this morning for Randolph, where he will remain for a few days with friends.

Special markdown in all trimmed and untrimmed hats during Thanksgiving week. Mrs. S. E. Lavolette, 94 North Main street.

Roy Centerbar, a former resident of Barre, who has been making an extended stay with relatives in Barre, left last night for Lowell, Mass., where he plans to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown returned to their home in Burlington to-day, after passing a few days in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lander of South Main street.

During his brief stay in Barre over Sunday Coadjutor Bishop Bliss of Burlington was shown over the new City Hospital building and he expressed himself as much pleased with the appointments of the structure.

If you are thinking of purchasing a piano this fall, don't fail to call and look over our stock over, as we have some good ones on the floor at the present time. Sold on easy payments if desired. Bailey's Music Rooms, 14 Elm street.

W. B. Wallace of Canaan, N. H., a member of the governor's council of the Granite state, and Mrs. Wallace, and Mrs. Wendelstadt of New York City were guests to-day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hinman of Orange street.

Insurance on the Aldrich block, which was threatened when fire broke out in Dr. W. K. McKay's dental office Saturday morning, was adjusted Saturday when the trustees of the Aldrich estate met with the insurance company's representatives. It is estimated that nearly $400 will be required to repair the damage done to the building. Contractor Earl Hatchelder has engaged to restore the burned section of the third floor and work will be started at once.

George H. Stuart, son of Mrs. G. H. Stuart of Spaulding street, to-day assumed his new duties as chief clerk at the Central Vermont railroad station in Burlington, after having been employed in a similar capacity in Bethel for nearly three years. Mr. Stuart succeeds G. L. Emerson, who has gone to St. Albans to become chief clerk in the general agent's office. The transfer of Mr. Stuart was included in a list of several changes made in railroad circles last week, among them being the promotion of H. C. Manner, until recently station agent at Burlington, to the Central Vermont's pier office in New York City. F. A. Dougherty of St. Albans succeeds Mr. Manner in Burlington.

Superintendent of Cemeteries Alex. Hanton will be in his office at city hall Saturday, Nov. 20 and 27, from 7 to 8 o'clock for collections on care of lots.

Thomas Marr, who has been seriously ill in his room in the Miles block for the past three weeks, was removed to the home of his brother, John Marr, of Foster street in the Perry & Noonan ambulance yesterday.

Miss Jennie Sinclair of Springfield, Mass., a former resident of Barre, arrived in the city Saturday evening for an extended visit at the home of her brother, Samuel Sinclair, of Jefferson street. At present she is the guest of Miss Ruth Milne of Nichol street for a few days.

Acquaintances of a well known Barre granitecutter, one of five who recently went from this city to Montreal, P. Q., to enlist in the Canadian overseas contingent, are chuckling over an authentic story told of the cutter's experience in joining the colors. To appreciate the force of the joke, old granitecutters recall the colloquial appellation of a stonecutter as a "rook in a mason's shed."

When the men from Barre, having passed the customary service examination, were submitting themselves to the customary formal questionnaire, one of their number, in response to a query as to his occupation, stated facetiously that he was a rook in a mason's shed. Apparently the recruiting officer associated the recruit with almost any vocation outside the granite plant for the next day he was assigned to duty in the commissary department, as a cook's helper.

RENFREW
DEVONSHIRE CLOTH

TUB PROOF and SUN PROOF

Do You Ask What to Buy in the Way of Wash Goods for Fall Dresses?

Let us suggest a Cloth that we have confidence in—a Cloth that we have watched the wash and wear of for the past four years—a Cloth closer, finer, and better style than Gingham, at a less price. This is our Renfrew Devonshire Cloth, 32 inches wide, at 18c per yard. Over 30 styles to select from. Send for samples. We pay the parcel post.

Munsing Underwear

If you are to buy all the Underwear that you can get for your money, you will have to buy Munsing. Do you ask why? There are many reasons. First, when washed the fit won't wash out. Second, they have a patent seam that is stronger and smoother. They are of better material, will wear longer and keep their shape.

Munsing Wear costs no more than other kinds. Children's from 50c to $1.00. Ladies' from 50c to $3.00. Boys' the same as Children's.

Ribbons

Special values in Ribbons for Christmas uses. These are all of them under price.

In our basement are all colors in a very wide Ribbon at 10c per yard.

In our basement is a lot of Fancy Christmas Ribbons that you have been paying from 25c to 35c for. This lot, all new patterns, in our basement at only 19c per yard. If wanted, don't wait. The price is too low to last.

LOTS

are finding out that they can save money by frequent visits to our Bargain Basement. This week look for Basement prices on Blankets, Quilts and Wash Goods. Could select your Dolls and Toys and have them laid aside for Christmas. Later there are lots of kinds that will be sold.

Mrs. Agnes Williams of Averill street left yesterday for Philadelphia, Pa., where she will attend the graduating exercises at the University hospital on Wednesday evening, her daughter, Miss Madeline Williams, being a member of the class that is to be graduated from the training school for nurses at the hospital. Miss Florence Slayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Slayton of South Main street, is also a member of the class. Mrs. Williams expects to pass some time with her daughter, who is to remain at the University hospital until Jan. 1.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Remember we are selling our holiday goods at markdown prices. W. H. Goodfellow & Son.

Rev. George Y. Bliss of Burlington, coadjutor bishop of the diocese of Vermont, made an episcopal visitation at the Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday. At the early morning service, Bishop Bliss was the celebrant and at the forenoon worship he confirmed a class of nine, seven of them young women.

Bishop Bliss made the morning service the occasion of a strong homily preached from St. Paul's epistle to the Galatians, ch. 22-23 vs., which reads: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith. Meekness, temperance; against such there is no law." At noon he officiated at a baptismal service and preached again in the evening. Bishop Bliss returned to Burlington this morning, after having been a guest over the week-end of Rev. J. W. Beattie of Tremont street.
